Complementing the theoretical inputs on print journalism, first-year postgraduate students of journalism visited Deepika Newspaper and the Press Club of Kannur on February 23, 2021, organized by the Department of Journalism and Communication.

Reneesh Mathew, Bureau Chief and an alumnus of the Department of Journalism, briefed on the entire process of gathering and editing news stories. Later, the group observed the printing of Rashtra Deepika, an evening paper published by Deepika Publication. The post-lunch session was in Kannur Press Club, interacting with A K Haris, President Press Club Kannur. Haris explained in detail the queries of students from the registration to the conduct of press club meetings. The 15 postgraduate students accompanied by the faculty members spent the day discussing and learning experientially.
